

THE NINETEENTH ANNUAL
SUBURBAN EAST CONFERENCE
MUSIC FESTIVAL

GRAND FINALE CONCERT

MOUNDS VIEW HIGH SCHOOL
MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2006
7:00 P.M.

Welcome to the
Suburban East Conference
Music Festival

On behalf of our nine member schools, welcome to the nineteenth annual Suburban East Conference Music Festival. The top bands, choruses and orchestras from our respective schools spent the day working with three prominent music clinicians, polishing and perfecting their own musical skills, and listening to performances by their peers from other schools. Tonight we conclude our music festival with a concert that features the finest vocal and instrumental musicians from each school in the Suburban East Conference All-Conference Band, Choir, and Orchestra. We believe that students in our All-Conference ensembles represent some of the very best high school musicians in the United States.

This festival is one of several activities hosted by the Suburban East Conference that promote the fine arts. All nine member schools agree that the fine arts are an integral element of the education of a child, and this music festival is just one example of how we are committed to the fine arts.

Mounds View High School and Park High School are pleased and proud to be able to host the Suburban East Music Festival this year. We hope you enjoy tonight's performance.

Dr. Paul Nesheim

Dr. Paul Nesheim is assistant professor and director of choral activities at Minnesota State University Moorhead, where he conducts the Concert Choir, Chamber Singers, Festival Women's Choir and Festival Men's Choir, and teaches choral conducting. He also directs the adult and youth choirs at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd in Moorhead. Prior to beginning his work at MSUM, Dr. Nesheim taught on the faculties of Concordia College in Moorhead and Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota. He has also held previous positions as a high school vocal music director and as a church choir director in Minnesota, California, Iowa and Arizona.

Dr. Nesheim holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in music education from St. Olaf College, a Master of Music degree in choral music from Arizona State University, and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in conducting from the University of Arizona. He has studied conducting with Maurice Skones, Douglas McEwen, Kenneth Jennings and Miles Johnson. Nesheim is an active member of the American Choral Directors Association and is a frequent clinician and guest conductor for high school festival and honor choirs, including the 2004-05 Minnesota All-State Men's Choir. He is a published composer and the author of Building Beautiful Voices, a book of vocalization methods and materials published by Roger Dean Publishing Company.

Dr. John Stanley Ross

Dr. John Stanley Ross is Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Music at the University of Minnesota, Morris where he conducts the University Concert Band and Chamber Winds and teaches courses in chamber music, conducting, woodwind techniques, and applied clarinet and saxophone. In 2002, Dr. Ross completed his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Wind Conducting at Michigan State University. He has also served as the visiting assistant professor of music at The University of Michigan-Flint and as the music director and conductor of the Interlochen Arts Academy Band and Wind Ensemble and as the instructor of conducting and music theory for the Interlochen Center for the Arts.

In 1996, 1997, 1999, 2000, and 2002, Dr. Ross was honored with the Who's Who Among America's Teachers Award. In 1998, Dr. Ross was recognized as being a distinguished teacher in the arts by the National Foundation for Advancement in the Arts. In 1996, he was presented with the prestigious Citation of Excellence from the National Band Association. John Ross has guest conducted throughout the United States and abroad, including: Michigan, Arizona, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Texas, Wisconsin, Hawaii, China, Romania, and South Korea. Mr. Ross is a member of the World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, the College Band Directors National Association, the National Band Association, Music Educators National Conference, Minnesota Music Educators Association, Minnesota Band Directors Association, Oklahoma Music Educators Association, Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and is an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi National Honorary Band Fraternity.

Gary Lewis

Gary Lewis is the Director of Orchestral Activities and Music Director of the Opera Theater Program in the Texas Tech University School of Music. He is currently the Interim Director of Bands. He conducts the University Symphony Orchestra, teaches conducting programs and conducts the opera theater productions. He is currently serving as Associate Conductor of the Pine Mountain Music Festival where he conducts the Festival Symphony Orchestra and assists with the opera productions.

Mr. Lewis received the Master of Music degree in conducting from Texas Tech University and the Bachelor of Music Education degree from The University of Oklahoma. His post-graduate work includes participation in the Pierre Monteux School for Orchestral Conductors and the Tanglewood Conducting Seminar.

He is very active as a guest conductor throughout the United States and Canada having conducted several university and professional ensembles as well as many All-State Orchestras, Bands, and other regional and local honor groups.
