

Welcome to the Twin Cities
Suburban Conference Music Festival

On behalf of our eight member schools, welcome to the fourth annual Twin Cities Suburban Conference Music Festival. Our concert bands, choruses, and orchestras have been working hard today with three nationally reknowned music clinicians, polishing and perfecting their own musical skills and listening to their peers perform. Tonight we conclude this wonderful day with a concert featuring each school's finest vocal and instrumental musicians in their respective all-conference groups.

This festival is one of several activities hosted by the Twin Cities Suburban Conference that promote the fine arts in a variety of ways. Our schools are united in the feeling that fine arts are an integral part of our educational programs and our Music Festival is one piece of evidence to support that position.

Forest Lake and White Bear Lake High Schools are pleased and proud to be able to host this year's festival. Enjoy the performance of some of the very best high school musicians in the Upper Midwest.

About the Festival

The Twin Cities Suburban Conference was established for the development of athletic schedules and to promote fine arts programming and aggressively pursue opportunities for students in the fine arts. During the last four years the TCSC has budgeted money to finance a fine arts program that involves on-site school workshops and performances in the area of Band, Choir, Orchestra, Theater, Speech, Debate, and Student Council.

Today's Festival is comprised of two parts: the day concerts and the evening Grand Finale Concert. Day concerts are presented by the individual schools' Bands, Choirs and Orchestras. After each group concludes their performance, they are able to work with their clinician for the remainder of their time period. During the day concert schedule, when students are not performing they are encouraged to listen to as many performing ensembles as possible throughout the course of the day and to complete critique sheets on every group they hear.

The second and concluding portion of the Festival is the Grand Finale Concert. Tonight's concert presents the three Twin Cities Suburban All-Conference Performing Ensembles. The All-Conference Orchestra, Band and Choir were selected by recommendations of the directors to represent the finest music students in our eight school conference.

The traditional finale for tonight's concert is a joint performance featuring the All-Conference Choir, All-Conference Orchestra and the All-Conference Band in a dramatic arrangement of "America the Beautiful."
